

Local Prawn Harvest

September 27th, 2019

Joe Thompson and his wife Geraldine invite you to their farm to buy prawns from the eighth annual prawn harvest in Piedmont North Carolina. Prawns are actually giant freshwater Malaysian shrimp. Although similar to shrimp grown in the United States, they have a naturally sweet, buttery taste and are prized by chefs at high-end restaurants.

Located at 5919 Allie Mae Road, Cedar Grove, NC 27231 in northwestern Orange County.

Use Google Maps for Directions

For Information Call: (919) 563-3220

visit www.thompsonprawnfarm.com

Giant Malaysian Freshwater Prawns

- Locally Grown
- Sweet buttery taste
- Meat texture is similar to lobster
- Low in fat
- Don't have the iodine content of marine shrimp
- Consistently score high in sensory evaluations
- Prized by chefs
- Can be frozen for later use

THOMPSON'S PRAWN FARM

You've had the rest.... Now try the best!!!